M & V Farm comprises 510 acres planted with Oranges (80 acres), Hybrid Coconuts, Sour Sop with the remaining planted in Tropical Hardwoods----Teak, Mahogany, Spanish Cedar and small amounts of other valuable but lesser known Hardwood Trees. The Tropical Hardwood Trees are like an annuity; each year growing in size and value.

M & V is located one mile outside of the Village of Teakettle in the Cayo District, just off the Western Highway. It has one mile of road frontage on the main road to one of the most visited tourist attractions in Belize; ATM Caves. Most farms are flat, not M & V, which is situated in the rolling hills of the Roaring Creek River Valley, providing panoramic views of fifteen to twenty miles of the surrounding Maya Mountains. There are miles of all weather roads wit...
